COACHERE
Coach and Consult

BACKGROUND

To Improve is to Change

Whether you're an individual or a business, you must make changes in yourself or within your organisation if you want to make improvements. Making change is not easy, but necessary to evolve and grow, especially in today's world.

It can be even harder for women, who face additional challenges, especially in male-dominated industries. Still, it can be equally as hard for men as they try to embrace and navigate this new diverse world.

Coachere works to increase the self-awareness, resilience, confidence and performance of professionals in sales, solutions, partner management and executive leadership positions within the IT channel and adjacent industries.

We combine over 25 years of experience in sales, partner management, and executive leadership positions in the IT channel with various coaching techniques and methods, either by purpose-built workshops or one-to-one or group coaching and mentoring.

Passionate about people, partnerships, and a global award-winning track record, Coachere can also help organisations build meaningful relationships, profitable go-to-market strategies and vital partner ecosystems in the IT channel through consulting.

ABOUT ME

MY STORY

My signature presence as a Coach is my natural ability to connect with people and make them feel comfortable when challenged. It enables those I work with to dig deep and get the answers and solutions they are looking for to keep moving forward.

Having led a Global Award Winning Partner Management and Marketing Division at CDW with revenue responsibility of over $1.1bn (which grew organically and through acquisition), I understand the pains that come with growing and scaling out an organisation. Highly experienced in restructuring teams, making them "Best in Class", I understand the challenges faced when integrating processes, roles and groups created by mergers and acquisitions.

Now a Worldwide Association of Business Coaches (WABC) Registered Corporate Coach™ (RCC™), ILM Accredited Business Coach, Leading Energy Profile Practitioner and motivated by making a difference, I work to increase the Self-Awareness, Resilience, Confidence and Performance of Professionals in Sales, Solutions, Partner Management and Exec Leadership positions within the IT Channel and adjacent industries.

I do this by combining over 25 years of experience in Sales, Partner Management, and Exec Leadership positions with various coaching techniques and methods.

MY WHY

“To inspire and empower others to be courageous, so that they realise their full potential and are the best version of themselves”

Yvonne Matzk RCC™ - CEO & Founder

1. Career and Emerging Leader

Designed for high-potential or emerging leaders looking to gain the skills, knowledge and behaviours needed to become successful in a leadership role.

Transitioning from a high-performing individual contributor to leading a team is no easy feat. It requires a unique set of skills and comes with a new set of challenges. Working with the individual and sponsor, we will discuss the goals, expectations and focus areas. If required, we may also conduct a 360 review with selected co-workers and will work on areas such as self-awareness, adaptability and communication.

Combining our vast personal experience with several coaching tools and techniques, we will work through all the areas individually, helping you make a smooth transition.

“ Working in Alliances it can be difficult to find coaches and mentors that really understand the role and the challenges that come with it. Then I found Yvonne. It wouldn't be overstating it to say that in the time Yvonne has been working with me, the way I approach my role, engage with colleagues and view my self has completely transformed. Yvonne has the unique ability to ask exactly the right question that helps you see something different and find the answers yourself. As a result of working with Yvonne, I am adding more value to my employer, am not afraid to take on bigger challenges and can see how my career can develop for the next 5 years. Thank you, Yvonne.”

Leah Stiff - Head of Alliances - ANS Group

The individual 1:1 coaching sessions can be used as a one-off or to top up a development programme.

“Yvonne has been instrumental in my career development within the tech industry. My role includes heavy communication with everyone in the company, from the CEO to the interns, with a vast range of communication styles which I had always found daunting, especially when dealing with the people at the head of the company. Not only have I excelled in my career, been promoted twice, taken on an assistant, and used the skills I've gained to then give her the ability to let her flourish, too, but I've also grown in confidence myself, and Yvonne has played a huge part of that.”
